

Fit2Cook4Kids Bully Prevention Policy[©]

What Fit2Cook4Kids identifies as bullying:

When one or more children (bully/ies) purposely target another child (victim) to physically or emotionally harm them, damage their property or insult/demean the other child.

Procedure for addressing the issue:

Fit2Cook4Kids administration has a zero tolerance policy to any form of bullying, physical or psychological. The camp director maintains the right to terminate a camper's enrollment and participation at any time due to camper's failure to comply with Fit2Cook4Kids' rules and values.

- First Infraction:
 - Offending camper will be warned verbally by camp staff and director
 - Stars removed from Star Chart
- Second Infraction:
 - Camper is separated from group and discussion with camp director/administrative assistant
 - Camp staff will have his/her parent/guardian contacted regarding this repeated behavior
- Third Infraction:
 - Termination of camper's participation without refund in Fit2Cook4Kids camp

The terms of the disciplinary procedure discussed above may vary depending on the severity of the harmful behavior that a camper conducts.

Parent/Guardian Signature: _____ Date: _____

Camper's Signature: _____ Date: _____

